Panel 1

A misty morning dawns on the Whispering Woods, where towering trees, their trunks adorned with glowing moss, stretch towards a pale blue sky. The air is heavy with the sweet scent of blooming wildflowers. Our heroine, 10-year-old Lila, stands at the forest's edge, her curly brown hair tangled with dried leaves and twigs, as she gazes out at the mystical landscape before her. A faint, ethereal light emanates from within the woods, casting an otherworldly glow on Lila's curious face, her eyes shining like polished opals in the soft light.

Panel 2

Moonlit glade, soft focus on Kiyomi's curious face as she kneels beside a glowing mushroom, its cap like a tiny lantern illuminating the forest floor; her hand tenderly touches the delicate petals of a nearby luminescent flower, while in the background, fireflies dance around the whispering leaves of ancient trees, their gentle hum harmonizing with Kiyomi's gentle smile.

Panel 3

Moonlit glade, overhead branches tangled like a verdant crown, soft blue moonlight casting an ethereal glow on Sakura's upturned face as she crouches beside a wispy-legged fawn, delicate antlers reaching for her hand, the air thick with the scent of blooming cherry blossoms

Panel 4

Moonlit glade, misty veil lifting to reveal ancient trees, their gnarled branches embracing the night sky like skeletal fingers. The young girl, her hair a wild tangle of silver-blond locks, kneels amidst the whispering foliage, hands cradling a delicate wooden flute. A soft, ethereal glow emanates from the instrument's curves, illuminating the misty veil as it begins to take on a life of its own, tendrils curling around her like a ghostly embrace.
